

John R. Freed
Funeral Home
Glenside, Pennsylvania

Coleman A. Beeson

Coleman A. Beeson of Abington Township, Glenside died Wednesday, March 26, 1997 at Allegany Hospital, Bucks County.

He was married to Ulma Beeson for over 63 years.

Born on January 25, 1910 in Silsbee, Texas, he was the son of the late Coleman A. and Rebecca Brown Beeson. He moved to the area in 1947.

He was a retired sales engineer at General Instrument, and also worked for Texaco and Philco.

Mr. Beeson was a member of Glenside Bible Church in Glenside.

He was ham radio operator W3EY and built many radios. He was a member of Quarter Century Wireless Association and trained young men in short wave radio in preparation for their getting their licenses. He was also a member of a masonic lodge in Louisiana.

Surviving with his wife are two daughters, V. Ann Pacey of Hurlock, Md. and Barbara J. Ferguson of Providence, R.I.; a son, Coleman A. "Bud" Beeson Jr. of Roslyn; and four grandchildren, William C. and Carol Ann Pacey, and Rebecca and Christopher Beeson.

The funeral service will be Saturday, March 29, 1997 at 10:30 a.m. in John R. Freed Funeral Home, 124 N. Easton Rd., Glenside. Visitation will be at the funeral home on Saturday from 9:30 until the time of the service. Interment will be in Whitemarsh Memorial Park, Prospectville.